Resources: Parent and Family Peer Support and Research

Following are links to selected resources related to parent and family peer support and peer support research.

Related Reading

Parsons, D.J. and Lambert, L. (2012). Family support and family involvement: Building skills, knowledge and participation. A report on surveys conducted by the Parent/Professional Advocacy League.

Research and Training Center for Pathways to Positive Futures and Youth & Youth Empowerment Support Program. (2013). Implementing the Peer Support Specialist Role: Providing Direct, Individualized Support in a Local Program. Portland, OR: Research and Training Center for Pathways to Positive Futures, Portland State University

Additional Resources

For more Information

For additional information on family support services across the country, visit the National Federation of Families for Children’s Mental Health website at www.ffcmh.org For information on the family support certification process, visit http://certification.ffcmh.org/

For information on family support partner services in Maryland, visit The Maryland Coalition of Families for Children’s Mental Health, “Family Support Partners,” http://www.mdcoalition.org/services/family-support-partners

For information on the wraparound process, contact The National Wraparound Initiative, 1600 SW 4th Ave, Suite 900, Portland, OR 97201, 503-725-9679, nwi@pdx.edu For information on wraparound in Maryland, see “Wraparound and the RTC Medicaid Waiver,” http://www.mdcoalition.org/resources/childrens-mental-health/154-wraparound-and-the-rtc-medicaid-waiver